

Over-religious Activity, A Threat to Biodiversity:
A Case Study (2): Save the Owl (Aves: Strigidae)

Sachidananda Padhy

*Vedic Science Research Centre, Bhaba Nagar-1, Berhampur 760 004, Odisha, India
E-mail: sachi_padhy@rediffmail.com*

KEYWORDS Over-religious Activity. Diwali. Owl (Aves-Strigidae). Sacrifice. Endangered Bird.

ABSTRACT Owl is sacrificed to conserve wealth on Diwali night, as a religious practice. This mythological activity is eco-negative, may cause the end of this endangered bird if the practice is spread up everywhere.