

Vocationalism in Nigerian Education

C.S. Oni

Faculty of Education, Department of Continuing Education, Obafemi Awolowo University,
Ile-Ife, Nigeria
E-mail: csoni2004@yahoo.com

KEYWORDS Vocational education; vocationalism; technical education; historical education

ABSTRACT The paper examines the concept of Vocationalism in Nigerian Education. In pursuance of this objective, the author takes a look at the historical background of vocational education in Nigeria, student enrolments, staff, and financial problems in vocational institutions in the country. The paper concludes with suggestions on how Nigeria can create technological value that will reflect on the concept of vocationalism in Nigerian Education.