

JOURNAL OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

Interdisciplinary Reflection of Contemporary Society

CONTENTS

VOLUME 23, Number 1

APRIL 2010

- R.E.S. Tanner • A Socio-Evolutionary Approach to Explaining Mob Behaviour: Symptomatic of Modernity or an Evolutionary Reic? 1-12
- M. O. Asokhia • Enhancing National Development and Growth through Combating Cybercrime/ Internet Fraud: A Comparative Approach 13-19
- Kudirat B. Sanni, Nsiong A. Udoh, Abayomi A. Okediji, Felicia N. Modo and Leonard N. Ezech • Family Types and Juvenile Delinquency Issues among Secondary School Students in Akwa Ibom State, Nigeria: Counseling Implications 21-28
- Kalpana Hiralal • The “Invisible” Workers of the Informal Economy – A Case study of Home-based Workers in Kwazulu/Natal, South Africa 29-37
- William Ehwarieme • Politics and the Competitiveness of the Nigerian Economy 39-44
- E. D. Nakpodia • Management of Distance Education in the Development of Nigeria’s Education 45-52
- Ben U. Omojimate and Godwin Akpokodje • The Impact of Exchange Rate Reforms on Trade Performance in Nigeria 53-62
- Michael. S. Ogunmuyiwa • Investor’s Sentiment, Stock Market Liquidity and Economic Growth in Nigeria 63-67
- Jimoh Amzat and Ilufoye S. Ogundiya • From Research to Policy: The Missing Links 69-74