

Anthropometric Study in Jenukuruba Males of Coorg, Karnataka

S. Keshava

*Anthropological Survey of India, Sothern Regional Centre, 2963, V.V. Mohalla, Gokulam Road, Mysore 570 002, Karnataka, India
E-mail: keshav-ndj@ahoo.com*

KEYWORDS Anthropometric Characters. Statistical Context. Physique. Indices

ABSTRACT The present study among Jenukuruba males, reveal that most of them possessing 'short' as well as 'lower medium' stature having 'low' sitting height vertex with 'very low' to 'medium' facial height exhibiting 'below medium' nasal height and 'above medium' nasal breadth and 'narrow' bizygomatic breadth, 'medium' head length and 'very narrow' head breadth. And they are characterized by 'dolichocephalic head' having 'mesorhinae' and 'chamaerhinae' nose with 'mesen' and 'lepten' type of face, together tendency to show 'very broad' jugofrontal, possessing 'narrow' chest form of robusticity index.